

Taking cocaine is like taking part in an infection relay

Blood can be passed from one person to another if sharing tubes, straws or banknotes to take cocaine. If you do this you could get hepatitis B, hepatitis C or even HIV.

For further information about drugs contact the National Drugs Helpline: 0800 776600.

