

Are you a health or social care worker?

Protect yourself and those you care for
Catch the vaccine not the flu

If you are a health or social care worker directly involved in caring for patients, it's vital to have your flu injection as soon as possible.

Contact your occupational health department or employer for further information and to make an appointment for the vaccine.