Research into public attitudes to mental health

To celebrate World Mental Health Day, the Health Promotion Agency for Northern Ireland (HPA) is running a seminar marking the launch of research into public attitudes to mental health.

The seminar will provide an opportunity for the HPA to outline key concepts arising from the research. These concepts will guide the development of a public awareness campaign for Northern Ireland on supporting mental health.

Potential participants

This seminar will be of interest to a wide range of individuals and organisations from the statutory, voluntary and community sectors that have a remit to promote mental health and wellbeing.
